Pro/Am Kart Race raises $81,000
for Children's Hospital:

CardioAccess is proud to announce that 2017's Kart-4-Kids Race was the most successful to date, raising a total of $81,000! In this year's event, a total of 14 teams containing 1 pro and 4 amateurs, competed in a 75-lap endurance race at Andersen Race Park. Over the past 6 years, $281,000 has been raised to help benefit Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital in St. Petersburg, Florida. CardioAccess is the world leader of clinical information management for patients born with Congenital heart disease and will continue to support Kart-4-Kids and their effort to benefit Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital as well as families affected by infant open-heart surgery, extreme premature births, pediatric cancer, and children's critical care and trauma. The Professional IndyCar and Sports Car drivers who participated included Sebastian Bourdais, Patrick Long, Tony Kanaan, Scott Dixon, Jordan Taylor, Ricky Taylor, Spencer Pigot, Ed Jones, Jan Heylen, RC Enerson, Daniel Morad, Trent Hindman, James French, Ethan Lowe, Nate Stacy, and Glenn McGee.

Kart-4-Kids, Inc. sole focus is raising money for children's medical needs. It is an all-volunteer organization and all money raised net of direct event expenses goes directly to Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital.
